CANTONESE ARMIES TO ENTER SHANGHAI WITHOUT RESISTANCE CREW OF FEDERALSHIP HELD ON $1,200,000 BAIL

BUTLER SAILS FOR SHANGHAI TO COMMAND MARINE FORCES

Will Allow Occupancy of Shanghai Without Opposition

(By Universal Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Brigadier-General Smedley Butler sailed from here this afternoon for Shanghai, where he will take command of the marine forces in China. General Butler expressed himself as happy over the fact that he will soon rejoin his command which he recently bid farewell when he departed from San Diego aboard the navy transport Chamouff. The general refused to discuss the China situation.

Butler Talks
(By Universal Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—"I don't exactly know what it's all about over there, but if Americans or their belongings are endangered I'll be right in the thick of it, doing my best as I've always done," declared Brigadier-General Smedley D. Butler, just before he sailed this afternoon for China.

"My orders are to report to Admiral Clarence S. Williams in Shanghai," said General Butler.

"Do you expect any trouble?" Butler was asked.

"I don't know, but if there is any we'll be ready for it," he continued.

"Is your sailing at this time an indication that things in China are getting worse?"

"I really don't know. I don't know a thing about the Chinese situation. All I know is that I got instructions to sail on the first boat, report to Admiral Williams, and here I am."

Sailing with Butler for service in the Far East were Lieutenant-Colonel E. B. Miller and P. E. Ancher, First Lieutenant Lucian Whitaker, Sergeant-Major Larn and Private Monahan, all members of Butler's staff.

Northerners Give Up
(By Universal Service)
LONDON, March 5.—The Cantonese will be permitted to occupy the northern troops, according to unofficial reports reaching this city tonight from Shanghai.

The reports indicate that an agreement has been reached between General Chang Tsun-Chang, commander of the Shanghai defense forces, and General Chang Hui-Shue, heading the Cantonese invaders.

It was stated here that such a move would bring the Cantonese forces in direct contact with the British forces in Shanghai.

British forces guarding the outskirts of the city of Shanghai would have to give permission to the Cantonese, before the latter could cross the lines into the city proper.

(By Universal Service)
LAS PALMAS, Canary Islands, March 5.—Two French airplanes, searching for the Uruguayan-transatlantic fliers, returned from Cape Juby at 6 o'clock this evening and announced that they found the wrecked plane, belonging to Major Larre-Borges and his companions, 50 kilometers from that port.

A Moorish interpreter who conversed with natives in the vicinity stated that the four Uruguayan fliers were with a Moorish tribe.

"All Lashen," he said, which, interpreted, means: "I believe the Uruguays are well."

The wreck of the Uruguayan plane was found by a French airplane, reconnoitering on the African coast.

The machine was found about 20 miles inland. It was definitely identified.

There was no trace whatever of the fliers.

A Spanish gunboat has been despatched to the coast near where the wrecked plane was found. Searching parties are being sent out.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, March 5.—Official denials of the story told by refugees arriving at Los Angeles to the effect that four American marines had been killed by the rebels in the district of Chinandega were forthcoming today.

Denied at Capital
WASHINGTON, March 5.—Reports circulated by passengers on the Panama mail steamer Venezuela who departed at Los Angeles, that four U. S. marines had been killed in Nicaragua, were contradicted by the state department and the navy department today.

The passenger said they "heard" about the casualties when their ship touched at Corinto, Nicaragua.

Only one marine, a signalman, has been injured in Nicaragua, the navy declared. He lost an eye through the accidental explosion of a loose cartridge, it was stated.

(By Universal Service)
BLUEFIELDS, Nicaragua, March 6.—Regarding the loss of American life in the persons of American marines in Nicaragua, an explanation was received tonight in an unconfirmed report that an American marine was fired on near the railroad on the Pacific side.

GENEVA, March 5.—The Anglo-Russian and Chinese situation has drawn up opposing diplomatic forces on a line more than halfway around the world from London, Pekin, Canton and Shanghai; the German-Polish atmosphere is very tense; there is silence but undiminished Franco-Italian tension; the little noise it is making at the moment.

These problems from a dark and oppressive cloud hanging low over the League council which convenes on Monday.

Prize Beauty Is Now Drug Seller

(By Universal Service)
NEW YORK, March 5.—Ernestine Lewis, twenty two year old blonde, stood revealed in Jefferson Market court today, as a prize beauty who had turned drug purveyor.

The woman had been using her unusual beauty to charm patrons of night clubs, craftily selecting drug addicts, and after gaining their confidence, bringing them to her apartment, where the police allege, she sold them the drugs they craved desired.

The prisoner denying the charges of having possession of narcotics, insisted that she was single, but detectives told the court that she came from New Orleans where she had a husband and two children. She is famous in the southern city for her beauty having been selected twice as the queen of beauty pageants.

Detective John McDonough who arrested the woman played the part of a beau Brummel society man, frequented the same night clubs, and his correctness of manner and dress got past the guard of the clever beauty.

McDonough accuses the woman of admitting the possession of $3,000 worth of drugs found in her elaborately appointed and incense-filled apartment. She was held in $7,000 bail.

Hoover Slashes Tape On Radio Commission

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 5.—Secretary of Commerce Hoover tonight slashed yards of red tape and put the infant federal radio commission on its feet to end the chaos in the ether.

He invited the commission shorn of all funds by the failure of the deficiency bill to come to Washington and borrow from his department a clerical staff and other requisites to set up a new control over broadcasting.

Meanwhile, President Coolidge gave recess appointments to Orestes H. Caldwell of New York, and Henry A. Bellows of Minnesota, the two members whose nominations failed of action by the senate. These actions together will permit the commission to function.

Geneva Parley Faces Task Of Pacification

(By Universal Service)
GENEVA, March 5.—The Anglo-Russian and Chinese situation has drawn up opposing diplomatic forces on a line more than halfway around the world from London, Pekin, Canton and Shanghai; the German-Polish atmosphere is very tense; there is silence but undiminished Franco-Italian tension; the little noise it is making at the moment.

Queen Of Dope Peddlers In Clutch Of Law

(By Universal Service)
CHICAGO, March 5.—"Honorable thieves" proved fruitless today when pretty Egan Hunter, alias Mrs. Eugene Ambrose, 18, was sentenced to a term of three to twenty years for her part in a taxicab holdup that netted only $6.

The gallant defense offered in her behalf by Albert Elsbauer, her accomplice, serving a sentence in Joliet State penitentiary for the same offense, did not save the girl. Weisbaum, with quaint chivalry took all the blame on himself for the robbery of Albert Sachs, the taxicab driver, and asserted that he had led the girl unwittingly into the crime.

While the girl was weeping in her despair, the judge gently but firmly sentenced her to State prison.

"You have had a fair trial, woman," he said sternly, "I see no reason why you should expect leniency to a greater degree than that accorded Weisbaum, who pleaded guilty."

Wilderness Woman Dies At Age Of 50

CALUMET, Mich., March 5.—Stories of "Old Maggie" Harrington whose death closed fifty years' defiance of law, man and wild beast, kept coming in here today.

This remarkable woman, who was seventy, roamed at will the forests of northern Michigan, despite the wolves and bears, either in the day or at night, fearing nothing. She subsisted on raw and uncoked food and wild berries. She dressed in just enough to be covered decently, but went about barelegged and hatless.

Old age, settlers here said, "got" her. Old age and cold. Her frozen body was found eight miles from her solitary cabin.

Cherries Ripe In Sacramento

NEW SERIAL OF SCOUTDOM STARTS TUES.

"The Regular Scout," a serial story of American adventure, the lovable kind of blood-stirring action in which all boys and grownups revel, will begin Tuesday in the RECORD-HERALD.

The story is the novelization of the F. B. O. picture which starred Fred Thompson and his horse Silver King, and is essentially a boys' story. It contains the sort of incident which appeals to boy readers, and the sustaining love interest which appeals to grownups. It is written in a rollicking breezy style.

Watch for it in the RECORD-HERALD. It begins Tuesday.

Petting Party Bandit Taken Into Custody

One of Trio Who Robbed Richmond Couple Is Taken in Oakland

Mystery surrounding the identity of the "petting party" bandits who on February 21 robbed Ruth Bosulich of Richmond of $36 and her escort, Fred Malibu, $21 Delaware street, of $9, and then with leveled guns appropriated the couple's automobile and left them previously in Oakland, was cleared Friday with the arrest by Berkeley police of Royal J. Kenny, Oakland youth, who confessed that he and two other companions were guilty of the Richmond holdup as well as numerous other robberies perpetrated throughout the Eastbay lately.

Kenny, living at 475 Fifty-eighth street, Oakland, confessed that he and Howard "Tex" Warrick, 19, of Berkeley, and Ano Kolari, 24, of Oakland, were guilty of a series of "petting party" holdups in Richmond, Berkeley, Emeryville and Oakland recently, and that Kolari was the ringleader.

Kenny's companions have fled the country, police learned, and warrants have been issued for their arrest, charging them with highway robbery. When questioned by inspectors as to his implication in an attempt to hold up the Pickwick stage at Stege on the same night as the Richmond holdup, Kenny flatly denied that he had anything to do with it.

A wish for thrills and good times was given by Kenny as the reason why the trio started on their crime expedition.

In Cuba Haven

Ricciotti Garibaldi, above, grandson of the Italian patriot, has arrived in Havana, Cuba, from England, where he had gone, after being expelled from France for participation in the unsuccessful Catalan plot. Permission to land was granted at the last minute, after a group of Cubans had interferred themselves in the Italian.

Plan Important Work On Streets Of El Cerrito

A street will be opened from the Kensington Park district to Fairmont avenue, El Cerrito, city officials of El Cerrito reported yesterday. The formation of an improvement district is being considered by the residents of the territory affected, which will have for its purpose the improvement of the street.

A move to pave a section of Arlington avenue, now lying outside of El Cerrito and in the county is also to be fostered. This will connect up with the plan to pave Arlington avenue from Berkeley to the Berkeley country club.

The advantage of the new street would be to enable the people of the hill district to have access to San Pablo avenue without going through Berkeley in a roundabout way to get to the main street. It is thought that much traffic now going around the city would pass through the central districts on the new street.

Check Passer Who Operated Here Is Jailed

Leonard Midgley, mail box bandit, who confessed to burglarizing postoffice boxes in Richmond, Martinez, Walnut Creek and Concord, as well as others in other parts of the country, will serve eight years in a federal penitentiary for that pleasure. Federal Judge Frank H. Kerrigan sentenced the man yesterday.

Midgley admitted that he has pilfered more than a million dollars in checks from mail boxes in small towns. Most of the checks, he said, were destroyed, the risk of cashing one of more than $300 being too great.

Second Span To Go Up Sunday Mar. 13

Raising of the second span of the Carquinez bridge has been tentatively scheduled for Sunday, March 13, it was learned yesterday.

Officials of the bridge company expect an even greater crowd at the raising of the second span than witnessed the raising of the first last Thursday. ### Diamond Rush Is On In South Africa

(By Universal Service)
JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, March 4.—Ignoring ditches, ant-hills and treacherous declivities, thousands of motorists raced pell-mell across the veldt in the diamond rush at noon today, according to a dispatch to the Central News. The motorized army of prospectors were out to peg their claims in the new Grastontien section, said to be the richest diamond alluvial field in South Africa.

One-half hour earlier pedestrians had dashed for the goal.

A horde of 25,000, it is estimated, took part in the rush which had to be run over after last week's attempt, when a false start was made against the judge's rules.

INTERNATIONAL DISPUTE LOOMS OVER ARRESTS IN RUM CASE

Officials Claim That Seized Federalship Is Old Offender

(By A. HAROLD NOON)
(By Universal Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Charged with conspiracy to smuggle liquor into the United States, Captain S. S. Stone, master of the Federalship, captured last Tuesday 300 miles off this port with a $1,000,000 liquor cargo, his crew of 18 men and 41 others, among them an official of the Consolidated Exporters, Ltd., operators of the vessel, were indicted here today by the federal grand jury.

Bail was set at $20,000 each. Captain Stone was also re-indicted for his alleged connection with the Nord rum case of last October which resulted in the conviction of J. Herbert Madden, former mayor of Sausalito and Joe Parente, reputed millionaire San Francisco rum broker.

Threats of international complications between this country, Canada, England and Panama as a result of the Federalship seizure as a "pirate" failed to halt the prosecution plans of United States District Attorney George J. Hatfield.

A special session of the grand jury was called and within an hour the indictments were voted.

Captain Stone, F. V. Donohue, first mate and personal representative of the Consolidated Exporters, Ltd., of Vancouver, owners of the Federalship, and Alexander Kennedy, second mate, were scheduled for further questioning concerning rum operations between Vancouver and California ports, late today.

Attorney Harold Faulkner and C. S. Arnold, Vancouver attorney who is here to aid Faulkner in defending the Federalship's crew, (Continued on Page 8)

NICK'S WHISKEY WHISPER

Professor Nicholas Murray Butler of New York, who with one and the same breath withdrew Coolidge from the Presidency and coyly offered his own blushing violet personality as a substitute, apparently has not been able to get his message over. When one essays the role of being the "voice in the wilderness" it is well to have a thought in advance that the loud speakers and amplifiers are in their place. Having failed to take this precaution, Professor Nicky's "voice" became a whiskey whisper before it reached the people.

Wholly apart from the question as to whether the president should or should not be a candidate for another term, the newspapers of the country apparently took the position that Nicky was speaking before he had been invited. The principal papers, north, east, south and west having small regard apparently for the solemnity of Nicky's personality devoted their energies to poking fun at the revered and learned professor of Columbia University. In short what Dr. Butler had hoped would be a speech from the throne, has apparently been interpreted by the country at large as a vaudeville gag from the foot stool.

Of course, the Doctor told us that he was speaking for New York and that New York must have a wet candidate or it would leave the Union but political precedent has long since shown, that a direct New York ownership label is about the worse handicap that any presidential candidate can have.

Many a fellow who is busy watching the lines of the girls on the street would be better off watching his own waist line.

Because of its unsavoury reputation, chemists want to change the name of wood alcohol to methanol. With recalls the old couplet about the rose with any other name, etc.

A herd of horned cattle, once so numerous in the west are to be preserved by the department of Agriculture in Oklahoma. This will probably occasion another outburst of protest from our professional pacifists.

Admiral Latimer denies that our marines have taken any part in the Nicaraguan battles. This is obvious for if they had the war would have been over before this.

No man ever yet got a dollar's worth of experience for 98 cents.—Boston Transcript.

Men Who Made the World

ALTHOUGH RICHARD HAD, ON THE SURFACE, BEEN VERY ANXIOUS TO MARRY PRINCESS ALICE DURING HIS FATHER'S LIFETIME, WE MUST NOW SUSPECT THAT HIS MOTIVES WERE OTHER THAN HE PRETENDED, FOR WITH HIS FATHER DEAD, AND PHILIP, HER BROTHER, KING OF FRANCE, RICHARD'S ALLY DEMANDING THAT HE COMPLETE THE MARRIAGE, RICHARD ALWAYS MANAGED TO EVADE IT. PERHAPS THE REAL REASON WAS THAT HE HAD FALLEN IN LOVE WITH A SPANISH PRINCESS NAMED BERENGARIA.

PARENT AND CHILD, INC.

One of the eight or nine dissenting opinions among the 3,000 or more ballots cast in our recent referendum on the question of sex instruction is this from a housewife:

"It is a subject on which I feel very strongly. It has been a theory of mine that the psychological moment to impart such knowledge is when the child comes to one with soul filled with the urge of the question. And I believe the child will come to the parent, and at an early age if there is the right sort of sympathetic understanding and partnership between them."

This is the reason why I say eight or nine dissenting opinions—I don't know whether to record this ballot as favoring or opposing our policy of teaching children the sacred truth just as we teach reading or arithmetic, in due season and not as something shameful or secret. Of course, I know that in the present state of education it is difficult or impossible to avoid the atmosphere of secrecy in the instruction of a child.

Mrs. J's theory is an excellent one as far as it goes. Happy is the mother who knows how to establish such a partnership with her daughter. Let Mrs. R. M. E. give us a glimpse of such happiness; she seems to have been instructed in the way Mrs. J. thinks best, for she first explains that her mother began answering her questions when she was about 6, and that mother always "bit by bit," as I asked, explained everything. Now in turn Mrs. R. M. E. says "my own daughter who is advanced for her age asked and received her answer at the tender age of 5 years. She was no shocked, accepted my explanation comparing human life with flowers, as a casual thing. She has never told. The worst she ever did was to tell my mother-in-law, who believes in ignorance (innocence, she calls it) that Mrs. X, whose husband was killed, was expecting a baby. Purity itself! I wouldn't miss the comradeship our talks have brought for a word. I tell her little innocent stories, and we laugh over 'our secrets,' knowing that when she hears anything at school, no matter what she will talk it over with mother."

There you are, folks. Of course, there is one essential for the establishment of a successful partnership like that. Mother has to know the simple rudiments of life, how a flower grows from seed and produces seed, how a bird or chicken grows from the egg, and so on. It is by comparing our own origin and reproduction with other forms of life that a child is best instructed. All helpful pamphlets or books or outlines of such instruction are based on the observation of the life and reproduction of plants, fishes, birds and animals. "The Wonderful Story of Life," obtainable at 5 cents a copy from the government printing office, Washington, D. C., is one of the best of these for a mother to follow in instructing her children.

Several voters in the referendum mentioned that they had received their first knowledge or instruction from mother or father when a domestic or pet animal gave birth to young. This might afford the "psychological moment" which one housewife urged as the proper occasion for instructing children.

A teacher aged 50, graduate of high school and normal, received his or her (I can't divine the sex) first sex knowledge at the age of 10 years, from "observation, perception, silent curiosity." This teacher has never had any other instruction, "no help from any source," and has been interested in sex life only "as in astronomy." This teacher votes "The less said about sex the better. The teaching of clean habits is sufficient. Sex attraction is inevitable."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Mrs. J. Doe Scores One

Postcard: "This said a rose by any other name would smell as sweet—so a cold called cri means the same with this difference, when you say a cold every one knows what it means, but when you say cri it takes two columns of fine print to explain what you mean. Yours (with reservations), Mrs. John Doe, Des Moines, Ia."

Answer—Well, another day ruined. Especially when I think it cost you only one cent to do it.

Vincent's Angina

We have heard much about "trench mouth" lately. What is it? Is there risk of contracting it from a fellow workman? (L. A.) Answer—Vincent's angina, an infection of the throat, sometimes involving the lining of the mouth, gums, nasal passages, usually accompanied with slow prolonged fever and general malaise similar to that of tonsillitis or diphtheria. Cheesy grayish exudate, with foul odor. It is likely to be caught from a fellow workman. It is caused by a specific germ.

Sour Milk

What medicinal value is there in Acidophilus milk? (C. G.) Answer—In my opinion ordinary buttermilk is quite as valuable for all purposes as any of the special preparations of fermented or soured milk, whether Bulgarian, Acidophilus or other strains of the lactic bacilli are used. Buttermilk is generally a wholesome beverage which favors a normal intestinal bacterial flora and therefore renders the field unfavorable for putrefactive bacterial activities.

White Sugar Is Wholesome

I understand white sugar is more harmful to the kidneys than brown sugar, because white sugar has been bleached with acids and some of the acid remains in the sugar. (L. I. C.) Answer—White sugar is as wholesome and as harmless to the kidneys as brown sugar is. The crude sugar is refined, and this is done by the use of acids, and this is not acid, and can leave no harmful substance in the sugar. Brown sugar contains about 200 times more mineral matter than white sugar, but that isn't saying much when you consider that there is not enough to count in any sugar. Brown sugar is nevertheless a desirable staple and it is regrettable that it is so difficult to obtain these days.

YOUR BOY AND YOUR GIRL

By ARTHUR DEAN, SC. D.
The Parent Counsellor

Dr. Dean will answer all signed letters pertaining to parents' problems with their boys and girls. Writers' names are never printed. Only questions of general interest answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamp, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Address Arthur Dean, in care of this paper.

WHO IS FOOLISH NOW?

Is this letter foolish? The girl who wrote it felt that I would think so. Do you?

If you had a sister who was a great talker, tolerated petting and invited flirtations what would you do if you were quiet and straight-laced? That's a big problem for a youngster. But see what she says: "Dear Doctor:

"I am so lonely. I would do most anything, now, if I had the chance, so that I, too, could have fun. I have a sister, two years older, who is a great mixer. She is a big, noisy, forward and friendly girl. She can talk faster than anyone I know and always has something to say, no matter how foolish it sounds when she says it."

"I feel that she is not fair with me. For instance when I start a conversation with a boy or girl friend, sister comes along and disrupts my word. Then she tells some joke on me to make me appear rather silly, and laughs and jokes with my friend. And when I ask a question she ignores it and changes the subject. Soon I fade out of the picture."

"I have never let a boy kiss me—and I am good to look at, too. Of course you will say that I had better attend to my school work, but I haven't any school work to do because I finished high school. Please encourage me a little and don't think I am silly."

"SEVENTEEN."

Of course you want friends—girl friends and boy friends. And you are entitled to the respect of your very thoughtful and inconsiderate big sister.

"Seventeen," I urge you strongly to do these things: (1) Assert yourself with your sister and demand your rights. (2) Make a list of the things you are interested in, whether athletics, drama, music, literature or whatever it is. Then enter into these things with your heart and soul. Pour your enthusiasm into them and forget yourself. Act spontaneously. Get the fun out of everything you do. Enjoy the thing at hand. And dear seventeen, you'll bloom like the flowers in the springtime. Girls and boys will seek your company, attracted by your personality.

I am enclosing some helpful leaflets: "Boys' Choice of Girls," "Development of Personality," "Conversational Don'ts," and "No-body Loves Me."

OUR CONVERSATION CORNER

Exposed to Education

My boy is taking the regular high school course but is doing less and less in his lessons. Now he wants to quit. What do you suggest?

ANSWER—I am sending your son a "salesmanship letter," hoping to convince him of the value of an education. To you I am sending a "How to Study Leaflet." Discuss this with him. Now, Mother, your letter lacks details which I should have to be of further service. But I'll state some general facts which you can apply if they fit your boy.

By and large the better a boy is educated the better are his prospects for a full and successful life. But there are some boys who seem to be immune to education in its higher forms. I advise you to discuss the situation with his teachers. They have a very definite idea as to whether you are justified in educating your son further. Be guided by their advice. If they say he can absorb it then talk seriously to him about his future and the importance of doing his school work well and

When a Man's a Man

"When my 23-year-old son works he can earn $50 a week. But he would rather sit up all night with the radio and sleep all day. He has a car and so he goes to his father for $10, then $2 and then $40. If we refuse him the money we are afraid he will either steal it, hold up somebody, or even commit suicide."

"Should we refuse any more assistance? If we scold him he cries like a baby, then he gets mad. 'DISAPPOINTED MOTHER.'"

ANSWER—If your boy is to become a man it's high time he began. That he can earn $50 a week at his age promises well, but his present habits will ruin him. Your husband should show the boy that life is both real and earnest—that there is a play time and a work time, that to redeem even his own self respect the boy should put himself on a paying basis with all possible speed and maintain himself there. I have a feeling that you, Disappointed Mother, and your husband are partially responsible for the boy's attitude. If he were my boy he would get no more help from the family exchequer.

The Marriage Game

As Played to a Decision Every Day By Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hutton

PSYCHOLOGY FOR MRS.

HER PLAY: It always amuses me when I see men strutting about, stupidly fancying that their wives are being consumed with jealousy of them. That idea about women being jealous of their husbands is one of the oldest and most absurd fallacies I can think of. The position the American woman holds in society today is sufficient insurance against the torments of that green-eyed monster and the woman who detects her husband making a silly fool of himself can bring him around in no time by showing her approval of his peccadilloes. A man's pride means a whole lot more to him than his follies.

HIS COUNTERPLAY: That is being very clever and all that, but let me tell you Madam, the woman who is really wise to herself will lay off that kind of subtle management. A man likes to think himself a bit of a devil, even up to his nineteenth birthday and if the Mrs. allows her husband to see a spark of jealousy in her eyes he begins to perk up and take a new interest in life, and as long as he gets a kick out of this little piece of deception where's the harm, I'd like to know?

THE REFEREE: This is Mr.'s day today, absolutely and without even a consolation prize for the Mrs.

MODELS OF CHIC AND SERVICE

The charm of feminine accessories, in the form of balloon cuffs and embroidered circular douses, lends to the flat-crepe frock (left), in old blue, special style interest. The belt and applied band at the left side are of self-material, and the embroidery may be developed in silk or colorful wooden beads. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36-inch crepe.

There are so many smart fabrics in which the second model may be smartly developed that it would tax space and ingenuity to name them all. The jabot arrangement above the belt, and the drape on the skirt below, make the design of unusual interest. Turn-back cuffs finish the long, close-fitting sleeves. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36-inch material.

First Model: Pictorial Review Pattern No. 3654. Sizes 14 to 18 bust, 34 to 42 bust, 45 cents. Embroidery No. 13133. Transfer, blue or yellow, 25 cents.

Second Model: Printed Pattern No. 3664. Sizes, 14 to 18 years and 34 to 44 bust, 45 cents. Embroidery No. 13125. Blue or yellow transfer, 20 cents

RICHARD BROKE INTO A TERRIBLE RAGE, PROMPTLY FORGOT ALL HIS COVENANTS, AND SWORE MOST VIOLENTLY AND PROFANELY.

SO TANGRED, IN CHALLENGING THE DUKE OF BURGUNDY TO A DUEL, WOULD BE SURE THAT HIS OWN WIFE WOULD BE PERFECTLY SAFE, AS ONE OF HIS BARONS WOULD HAVE TO DO THE FIGHTING FOR HIM. ALL OF WHICH IS A VERY QUANT IDEAL.

The couple visited the judge with relatives and friends and after the ceremony left for Oakland where a reception was given.

'EVERYBODY'S
ACTING' COMES TO RICHMOND

"Everybody's Acting," Marshall Neilan's current Paramount picture, featuring Betty Bronson, Ford Sterling, Louise Dresser, Lawrence Gray, Henry Walthall and Raymond Hitchcock, which arrives at the Richmond theatre today, is heralded as being a highly dramatic tale well flavored with typical Neilan comedy touches. And, if advance notices be true, "Everybody's Acting" runs a gamut from dynamic drama to scintillating comedy and succeeds in running it well, keeping the tempo at the right pitch all the way.

The story, written by Neilan for his own use, starts at a time when the leading lady of a theatrical stock company is killed by her husband, leaving an infant daughter, and follows the child through life with its five adopted guardians.

Betty Bronson hasn't had a role since the never-to-be-forgotten "Peter Pan," which can compare with her present part as Doris Poole. First seen at the age of 8, Miss Bronson actually has the spectator grow up with her till he reaches beautiful young womanhood.

Ford Sterling appears at his funniest as one of Betty's fathers, Louise Dresser, distinguished character actress, as an example of the successful career-seeking woman, will not disappoint her many admirers. Raymond Hitchcock gives a good account of himself in his return to the silver screen. Henry B. Walthall, the "little colonel" of "The Birth of a Nation," needs no introduction, nor does Gloria Swanson's former leading man, Lawrence Gray.

Heading the supporting cast are Stuart Holmes, Edward Martindel, Philo McCullough, Jocelyn Lee and Ted Prouty.

Other film features include "Kiss Papa," a Lige Conley comedy, and "Kinograms," world news events.

CLEVER ACTS BOOKED AT CALIFORNIA

A brightly assembled five-act program of vaudeville comes to the California theatre today in conjunction with the screen feature, "The Far Cry," featuring Blanche Sweet.

"Girl and Boy Toys," a juggling presentation with The Lovetts, introducing something new in the art of manipulating hoops and diablos, start the show off with a bang. Their jugglery is smart and quickly executed.

Step and Fetchit in song, dance and talk are two entertaining southerners with an overabundance of pep which they display in some modern eccentric dance steps.

The Parisian Trio offer "Dance Varieties" in an artistic big-time manner. These continental artists are clever exponents of the terpsichorean art and have some original ideas in presentation. A pretty stage setting and some stunning gowns worn by the dainty miss make a colorful picture.

Bob Mills, the happy thespian with the million dollar smile, a repertoire of songs that are his own composition, a number of two that are popular hits of the day, is always a big favorite. Bob is a big liner who entertains with a worth while offering.

Artists in wood and wax are the Manikins presented by Mona, Willie. An unusual offering that entertains both young and old. There is a laugh all the way through and the clever manner in which the figures are manipulated always merits an approving hand for the artists.

William Blake's "The Star of Bethlehem,"
Raphael's "Sistine Madonna,"
Gustave Dore's "The Nativity" and "The Star in the East,"
Ruben's "The Holy Family,"
Millar's "Christ in the Carpenter Shop,"
Dore's "Dante's Inferno" (for scene in the Gallies).

Tissot's "Pool of Siloam" and many other Holy Land paintings.
Leonardo da Vinci's "The Last Supper," Munkacsy's "Christ Before Pilate."

The motion art seizes not only the one "divine moment" of the pointer, but gives the action leading up to it and coming away from it. It may thus be termed animated painting, particularly since some of the most beautiful of these subjects are reproduced in color.

These scenes are incidental to the wonderful romance of Ben-Hur, a contemporary of Christ, in the epoch-making picture based on General Lew Wallace's world-famous stage play and novel. The picture has been playing to capacity since its opening here.

Ben-Hur is now playing at the California theatre in Berkeley.

'THE FAR CRY'
IS NEW FILM
AT CALIFORNIA

A popular delusion is shattered beyond repair in "The Far Cry," a new First National picture coming today to the California theatre. This is that after divorce the parties to the estrangement are bound to hate each other.

According to the story of this film version of Arthur Richman's stage hit, Max Frasier, a French marquis, and Claire Marsh, his American wife, becoming, if anything, more friendly toward each other after the court disentangles them than they ever were during their married life.

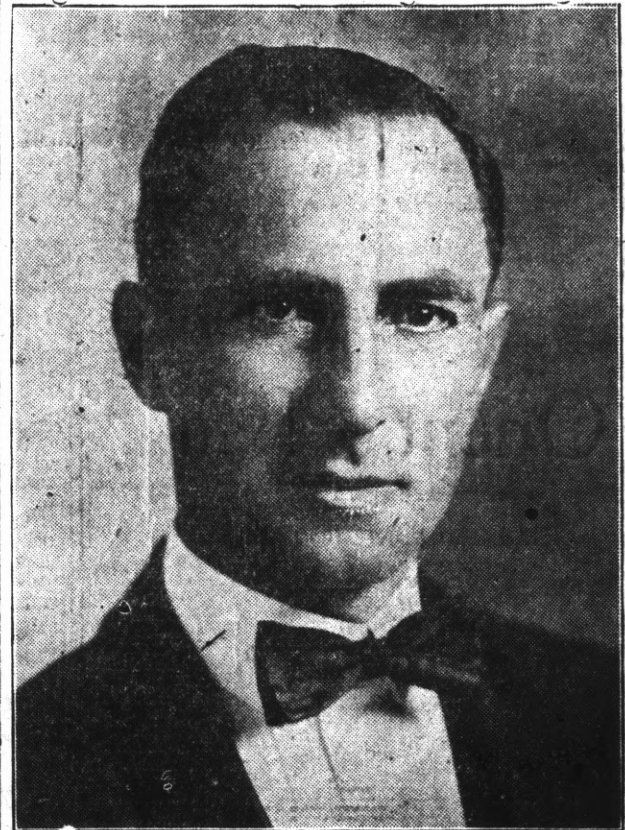

The picture features Blanche Sweet, with important roles entrusted to Myrtle Stedman, Jack Mulhall and Hobart Bosworth. Balboni, the suddenly famous young Italian director, made the picture. It marks his initial effort for First National. Those who have already seen "The Far Cry" are said to commend the work of its director superlatively.

Other features on the same program include "Felix in Reversed English," a Felix the Cat cartoon comedy; "Kinograms" world news events; Weick's Californians; Larry Canelo at the organ, and the big acts of West Coast Theatres, Inc., vaudeville.

BRAINY YOUTHS OF BRITAIN LURED TO U. S.

By HENRY CAVENDISH

(By Universal Service)

LONDON, Mar. 5.—Luring away from Britain of the brightest young brains of the country to the United States and the British Dominions, and to other countries foreign to the British Isles, by offers of rich reward and quick advancement has caused a stir in the civil and industrial life of England which is resulting in a strong note of opposition on the part of leaders in the industrial and commercial life of Britain.

It is pointed out by many that some of the most promising and most brilliant members of the younger generation are to be found in foreign fields advancing the interests of other countries and of foreign sections when they should in reality be at home, and a move has been started to provide quicker progress and thus eradicate this evil.

Perhaps one of the most outspoken in British public life on the question is a woman, Lady Lawrence, who was the chief woman's welfare officer in England during the war. At present, Lady Lawrence, wife of the third Baron Lawrence, is chairman among her many varied other activities, of the Ladies' Imperial club.

Discussing recently the sabb-

ing of the nation's lifeblood by the taking away of its younger leaders, Lady Lawrence declared:

"From family after family in our villages and towns, it is the 'eye' which is taken away regularly, leaving the more helpless members to drag along, and without its aid, to encounter increased difficulties at home.

"Always it is the stoutest, brainiest of the family who goes overseas in search of the larger opportunities there.

"The governments of the Dominions and the United States ask only for, and welcome only, the best from the old world. It is only fair that these younger countries should take complete families, rather than the best of the families."

Lady Lawrence suggested various ways of making the homeland so attractive as to hold the cream of the population here in England. She assailed the "squandering" of the British government and declared there must be a lifting of expenses with a re-allocation of taxes in order to lift the overwhelming burden of crushing taxes from the shoulders of the citizen.

BRITISH WOMEN KEEP IN STEP WITH SISTERS

(By HENRY CAVENDISH)

(By Universal Service)

LONDON, Mar. 5.—American women, ever forcing themselves further and further into the forefront of industry and commercial progress in the United States, are not without their associates in Great Britain. For with the emancipation of women in the United States, there has been a like emancipation of English women, and many of them have gone far in their chosen fields of public endeavor.

Perhaps among the more noted exponents of the abilities of women in business is Miss Edith Beesley, a fair-complexioned, bob-haired woman in her early thirties. She recently took up her duties in the hurried life of London's busy West End as a branch manager of a well known life insurance concern of England. The duties and responsibilities and powers assumed by Miss Beesley were exactly those held by her male associates in the affairs of the company.

Miss Beesley was found yesterday at her new office, and recounted of her advancement to her present responsible position. She said:

"In 1911, I went out to South Africa as a school teacher. Two years later, I changed and started into the insurance world at the foot of the ladder. I worked as an agent on commission alone, first in Cape Town and then in Johannesburg, and managed to do quite well.

"In 1914, when the war broke out, I felt I wanted to do something so I came home and drove a car in Wales in the place of the chauffeur who had to go to the front.

"In 1916 I took an appointment as an inspector for a life insurance company and remained there for two years. I had been offered another post with a bank, and since both looked attractive I could not make up my mind as to which I should accept. I tossed a penny. It came down 'heads' which decided me for insurance.

"Three years later, in order to learn more about the technical side of insurance work, I went into the office of a firm of insurance brokers in the financial districts of London."

Miss Beesley then told of how she left the insurance firm she was working with in order to start a women's department for another firm. This proved a turning point in her career, and led up to her present appointment. Of her new duties, she commented: "Now I am a manager without any feminist label at all. I cannot say that I shall 'concentrate' on insurance for women, because I shall have the ordinary dealings with both sexes. I certainly think, however, that women should take greater interest in insurance."

Miss Beesley flew to Paris in

Auto Companies Are Active In Detroit, Mich.

(By Universal Service)

DETROIT, March 5.—Leaders in the industry in this territory are running on fairly large schedules in expectation of a good spring business.

Reports from Hudson-Essex show that this company is well in the lead in boosting schedules this spring, having gone to 1,425 daily the first of March.

Chevrolet is running steadily on a 4,000 daily basis.

Dodge schedule for March was set at 600 daily. Willys-Overland, due to the success of its Whippet models, has gone on a schedule of 1,200 daily this month. Buick boosted slightly on March 1 and is now on a 1,100 daily basis. Erskine sixes are being built now at the rate of 300 daily. Paige boosted production slightly when the eight-cylinder model was started in production March 1.

Sales in Wayne county, the heart of the automobile industry, were 20 per cent lower in February of this year, compared with last year.

Motor car registrations show Chevrolet well in the lead in this county, with Hudson-Essex second, Buick third, Ford fourth and Oakland-Pontiac fifth. The LaSalle, the new product of the General Motors corporation being built by Cadillac, has been given excellent distribution throughout the United States. Some 5,000 cars have been placed in the hands of the dealers prior to the spring season showing starting Saturday in Cadillac show rooms everywhere.

It is interesting to note that the chassis of the LaSalle is essentially Cadillac, having been built identically the same as the Cadillac which has been proven by about 250,000 cars produced in the last 13 years by Cadillac.

The body, it is said, was a take-off of the Isotta-Fraschini, making its lines essentially European.

The Packard price cut of $335 this week brings the Packard six model down to just half of what the same car was at the time of its introduction some years ago.

Neufeldt To Compete For Bear Alumni

BERKELEY, March 5.—Bill Neufeldt, captain of the University of California track team in 1924 and now coach at the Piedmont high school, will be one of the former Bear stars who will compete for the alumni Saturday afternoon in their meet on California Oval with Walt Christie's 1927 Varsity.

Here are some of Neufeldt's records while in college: Shot put, 47 feet 3 1/2 inches; discus throw, 147 feet 10 inches; javelin, 194 feet 5 1/2 inches.

1926 to keep an appointment with a prospective business client. She persuaded a fellow passenger on the machine to take out a policy, finished her business in Paris in an hour, and was back at her London office in the afternoon.

Chandler Has Long Record Of Service

The old discussion of how long a good car should last has bobbed up again, and this time with some real facts and figures.

George Olson of 412 Macdonald avenue, local Chandler representative, brings it to our attention by telling about the record mileage made by a 1919 Chandler, No. 3223, in Yugoslavia.

This car, Olson was advised by factory officials, has traveled 253,000 kilometers since its purchase in the fall of 1919. "The distance in kilometers may not mean much to you readers," says Olson, "but when you figure it in the good old American way, it comes to the very sizeable total of 157,211.2 miles.

"When it is remembered that the average motorist drives between 9,000 and 10,000 miles each year, Chandler No. 3223 has given almost sixteen and three-quarter years of service—and I am advised that the motor is still in faultless condition.

"The amount of mileage this car has traveled is equivalent to 47 1/2 cross-country trips from New York to San Francisco. Or, if you want to figure it from the kilometer angle, it is equivalent to 361 cross-country trips from Marlboro to Billot—the extreme northern and southern cities of Yugoslavia.

"But any way it's figured," Olson maintained, "you have to hand it to Chandler for stamina and durability. When a car will give better than 16 years of service in less than half that time, that car must stand as an eloquent tribute to the fine materials and quality of care in building that all Chandleys receive."

When Does A New Auto Become A Used Car?

"It's a rather big undertaking to explain just why or when an automobile becomes a used car," remarked J. P. Strom yesterday.

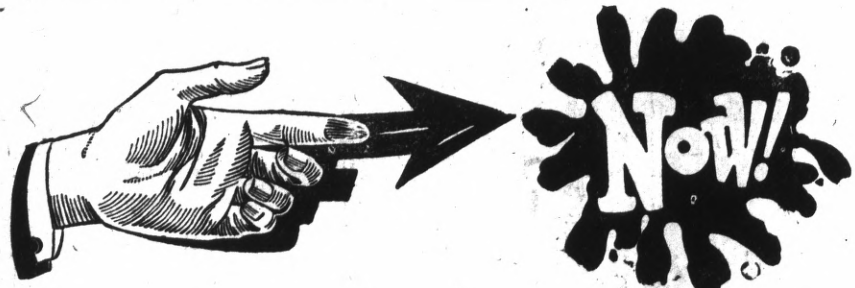

"For instance, suppose a man owns a new car, drives it a few thousand miles and then decides that he wants a larger car or a smaller car, or an enclosed car, and trades it in.

"This fellow's car is comparatively new up to the last day he owns it, but the next day he owns it with the same engine, tires and roadability becomes a used car when it is offered for sale by the dealer.

"There is undoubtedly a greater demand for used automobiles than for any other 'used' property, excepting houses. Several thousand used cars will change ownership in Richmond and vicinity this year."

There are millions of people who have never heard of Kemmerer. It is not probable that more than a comparatively few thousand people will ever see Kemmerer.

And yet, in that small mining town up in the foothills of Wyoming, an idea was born in 1902 that has since been the means of saving many millions of dollars to great numbers of people.

When the first Store of this Nation-wide institution was opened, there were those who said that while its policies were ideal it could never prosper and be guided wholly by the principles of the Golden Rule.

But it did. It went on year after year, adding one branch store after another, serving more and more people, ever enhancing service and savings to the public, until today the activities extend from coast to coast. You are benefiting today from that idea.

GRACE LUTHERAN CHURCH

Barrett avenue and Thirteenth street, Samuel T. Himes, Ph. D. pastor. Residence 513 Thirteenth street. E. J. Evans, superintendent of the Sunday school. Miss Ethel Borgstrom, organist.

Sunday school begins at 9:45 a. m. Subject of the lesson, "Sharing the Good News." Golden Text, "Ye Shall Be Witnesses Unto Me." Acts 1:8. In order to be good witnesses for Christ, there must be a missionary impulse along with missionary activity; and this must be constrained by the love and spirit of Christ. Then, finding the opportunity, there must be a missionary message. This message will be the message of the word accompanied by the Spirit, in view of saving a soul. The Sunday school is an opportune field in which to share the good news.

At 11 o'clock service the sermon by the pastor will be on the subject, "A Separate People." This separation is from the world and from sin and Satan. The Lord's people are a chosen people to meet the requirements of the Lord. The design is to live for Christ, completing His work. This is done by going about with His spirit and taking His message to all the world. This will be attended by His blessing.

Antem by the choir, "Holy Spirit, Faithful Guide." Response to the sermon, "Nearer My God to Thee."

At 6:30 p. m. the Luther League will join all the Young People's societies of Richmond in a union meeting, under the direction of Dr. Bulgin, to be held in the Wesley M. E. church, across from the big tent.

Unity is not a sect, but a school of spiritual research. Unity teaches that the principle by which Jesus Christ did his works is still operative.

Lent Slows Down New York Theatre

By JOSEPH MULVANEY (By Universal Service)

NEW YORK, March 5.—Lent hit the line hard, slowing down new productions, squeezing many of the old shows to an uncomfortable degree, and forcing the frailest out into the storehouse and street. Just three plays opened last week. All were comedies—Frank Craven's "Money from Home," George MacFarlane's "We All Do," and the new playwright's production, "Low Speaker." The Craven show was the most pretentious, the play-wright offering the most bizarre and the MacFarlane comedy the most conventional.

STAR BASEBALL TEAM FROM P. C. LEAGUE NAMED

(By Universal Service)
LOS ANGELES, March 5.—Announcement of an all-star Pacific coast league baseball team for 1926 was made today by President Harry A. Williams. Twenty-five newspaper and press association sports experts joined in the selection of the team, which heretofore was done by individuals and members at random. Williams plans to make such a selection an annual affair and establish a permanent coast league hall of fame.

Los Angeles, Sacramento and Missions each won two positions in the 1926 all-star aggregation, and Oakland, Portland and Seattle one position each.

The coast league all-star team for 1926 follows:

Pitcher, Cole, Mission.
Catcher, Kohler, Sacramento.
First base, McDowell, Mission.
Second base, Monroe, Sacra-

Free Love Union Of Artists Takes

(By Universal Service)
CHICAGO, March 5.—Here's a trial marriage that took. Seven years ago Fay Courtney, vaudeville actress, and Roy Mc Nicol, portrait painter, were united with a civil marriage. They agreed that within seven years they were either to obtain a divorce or confirm the marriage with a religious ceremony.

Today both declared that the first seven years have been "easy," they want seven more, and as many thereafter as possible.

That the twain may never part, they arranged for religious rites to mark the end of the first seven years and the beginning, they said hopefully, of the next fifty-seven.

Shortly after the religious ceremony McNicol is to leave for Spain where he is commissioned to paint some of the nobility.

INTERNATIONAL DISPUTE LOOMS OVER ARRESTS IN RUM CASE

asserted the seizure of the vessel 300 miles southwest of the Golden Gate after Captain Stone had been forced to surrender when gunfire from coast guard cutters ripped away a hatch cover, was an "outrage" and a declaration of war by this country upon the republic of Panama.

According to government officials, Captain Stone and his crew and Vancouver associates have been active for some months past in rum smuggling operations.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—No protest has been received from the Panama government over the recent seizure of the Federalship, alleged rum runner, many miles off the Pacific coast, the state department announced today.

Although the Federalship was under Panamanian registry, no citizens of that country were on board when it was seized. The department has informed the Panamanian government of the facts, it was said.

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 5.—Efforts today to confirm reports that the Federalship had been refused clearance papers for its liquor voyage south by the local consul for Panama failed when it was found that the official in question, H. J. Morris of this city, is in Los Angeles.

In local liquor export circles there is keen conjecture as to whether the visit of Consul Morris south had anything to do with the seizure of the vessel.

Petting Party Bandits Taken Into Custody

George E. Lewis, 83 Eucalyptus road, Oakland, Lewis is a federal postal inspector.

Following is the crime record of the youthful bandit: On the night of February 14, held up E. Hummel and a girl companion on the Joaquin Miller road, taking $50 from Hummel; February 18, held up Miss Wilma Stone, 2319 Derby street, Berkeley, taking $25 from H. R. Spears of Oakland, her companion, then took his car and left their own stolen one; robbed James Morris, 1436 Ninth street, Alameda, and Phil Passifume, 543 Myrtle street, Oakland, at Fifty-third and Hollis streets, the same evening, and then continued on to within a block of the Northern police station, Oakland, where they wound up the day by robbing another pedestrian and abandoning their stolen car.

Motorists may be required to turn in their operators' license cards which have been outstanding three years or more under a measure pending before the state legislature, according to the legislative bureau of the California State Automobile association which issued an explanation of this legislation yesterday. The proposed change in the law is contained in a bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Arthur H. Bree which includes a number of amendments endorsed by the motor vehicle conference.

This amendment would change Section 69 of the California vehicle act to authorize the state motor vehicle division to cancel at any time all operators' licenses which have been outstanding for a period of three years or more, thereby making it necessary for motorists whose cards were thus cancelled to file application for renewal. They would be subject to examination at the discretion of the division as to continued fitness to operate a motor vehicle.

Under the law at present, an operator's license is valid until revoked or suspended. This has resulted in thousands of motorists carrying license cards for five or six years, during which time the cards have become soiled, torn or otherwise mutilated so that they are unreadable. Since the main purpose of the operator's license card is identification, it is proposed to remedy this condition by the proposed change.

The amendment will also make it possible for the motor vehicle division to clear its records of cards of motorists who have moved from the state or have died. It will also give a closer check on changes of address of holders of operators' licenses.

Noted Psychologist To Give Series Of Richmond Lectures

Eugene R. Dukette, Ph. D., LL.B., psychologist and analyst of New York, has returned to his former position of the request of his former students of psychology to give a series of free public lectures March 6-9, inclusive, at 8 p. m.

Mr. Dukette, a graduate of Harvard, is well equipped to give an intelligent interpretation of the new psychology which is absorbing the interest and attention of thousands of people throughout America. He is an easy, fluent speaker who holds the attention of his listeners while he unfolds in a simple manner the intricate laws of the mind, in the light of the great psycho-analytic discoveries of the celebrated doctor of Vienna, Sigmund Freud.
